PURSUANT to the provisions of section 1021 of the Criminal Code, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, by Order in Council approved on the 2nd day of February, 1943, has been pleased to approve of the following Rules of Court, entitled "Criminal Appeal Rules, 1943," made by the Court of Appeal:—

CRIMINAL APPEAL RULES, 1943.

(Made pursuant to the Provisions of Part XIX. of the Criminal Code relating to Appeals from Convictions on Indictment.)

1. The definitions contained in section 1012 of the Criminal Code shall apply to these Rules.

2. Appeals and applications for leave to appeal from conviction or sentence shall be brought or made within one month from the pronouncement of the conviction or sentence, as the case may be.

3. Notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal shall be in one of the Forms A, B, or C in the Schedule hereto, as the case may require, and shall, if the appeal is proposed to be heard in Victoria, be sent to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal at Victoria, and if in Vancouver, to the Registrar of the Court there. Three copies shall be forwarded to the Registrar with the notice.

4. The Registrar shall file the notice and send by registered mail or deliver to the Attorney-General of the Province one of said copies; he shall also send a copy in the same manner to the Judge or Magistrate appealed from.

5. If the application is for leave to appeal and the leave be granted, no other notice of appeal shall be necessary.

6. When the appeal is by the Attorney-General or the Counsel for the Crown at the trial, against sentence, the practice and procedure in the Court of Appeal in criminal matters shall be followed.

7. Applications for extension of time shall be made on one clear day's notice to the Attorney-General and shall be in Form D in the Schedule hereto, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the proposed notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal.

8. Applications to the trial Court for a certificate that the case is a fit one for appeal shall be in Form E in the Schedule hereto, and shall be made on three clear days' notice to the Attorney-General, unless he or the counsel who acted for the Crown at the trial shall waive the same. The certificate shall be in Form F in the Schedule hereto.

9. The Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof may, notwithstanding that the time and place of hearing have been specified in the notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal, fix any other time or place for the hearing thereof.

10. The Judge or Magistrate appealed from shall furnish to the Court of Appeal a report giving his opinion upon the case or any point arising in the case, and, where no shorthand notes of the evidence were taken at the trial, a copy of his notes of the trial, with all due expedition.

11. Where the evidence or part thereof has been taken in shorthand, the stenographer shall furnish, if requested, a certified transcript thereof to any of the parties interested upon payment of the fees hereinafter specified.

12. The appellant or applicant for leave to appeal shall be permitted to make copies of the said notes and report, but if he shall require copies of the same to be furnished to him, he shall pay for them in accordance with the last preceding Rule.

13. On receipt of the notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, or upon the granting of leave to appeal from sentence, the Registrar shall enter the appeal or application for leave to appeal, as the case may be, upon the list for the current or next sitting of the Court of Appeal at the place fixed for the hearing thereof.

14. The written case or argument of the appellant shall be filed with the Registrar three clear days before the day fixed for hearing; but the Court of Appeal may receive the same at any time upon such terms as the Court shall think fit.

15. Any documents, exhibits, or other things connected with the proceedings on the trial shall be kept in the custody of the trial Court, subject to the order of the Court of Appeal or of a Judge thereof.

16. Applications for bail upon a criminal appeal shall be made on one clear day's notice to the Attorney-General, unless the consent of the Attorney-General to a shorter notice is obtained. Such notice shall be in Form G and shall set out the amount of the bail which the appellant is prepared to give and shall be accompanied by a copy of the notice of appeal.

17. An order for bail pending determination of an appeal shall be in Form H in the Schedule hereto, and shall specify the amounts in which the appellant and his surety or sureties, if any, shall be bound on recognizance, and before whom the recognizance of the appellant and of his surety or sureties, if any, may be taken.

18. The recognizances of the appellant and of his surety or sureties, if any, shall be forwarded to or filed with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal where the appeal is to be heard, who shall, on being satisfied that they are in due form and in compliance with the order admitting the appellant to bail, forthwith notify in writing the Warden or Keeper of the Common Gaol where the appellant is confined, of the granting of bail and of the right of the appellant to be released from custody, unless he is detained for some other cause. Such notification shall be in Form I in the Schedule, and when received by the Warden or Keeper shall be sufficient authority for him to release the appellant from custody.

19. A surety who suspects that an appellant is about to depart from the Province, or in any manner to fail to observe the conditions of his recognizance, may lay an information before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the county in which the appellant is, or is believed to be, or in which the surety is, and such Justice shall thereupon issue a warrant for the apprehension of the appellant.

20. The appellant shall, upon being apprehended under such a warrant, be brought before the Justice of the Peace issuing such warrant, or some other Justice, who shall, on verification of the information laid, commit him to the common gaol, and shall forthwith notify the Registrar and the Attorney-General of the granting of such order of committal.

21. At any time after an appellant has been released on bail the Chief Justice of British Columbia or the Judge admitting to bail, or any other Judge designated by the Chief Justice, may, upon being satisfied that it is in the interests of justice so to do, revoke the order admitting him to bail, and issue a warrant for his apprehension, and order him to be committed.

22. Nothing in these Rules shall affect the right of a surety to apprehend and surrender into custody the person for whose appearance he has become bound.

23. On a breach of the recognizance of the appellant the Chief Justice of British Columbia or the Judge admitting to bail may, if he thinks it right so to do, order the recognizances of the appellant and of his sureties to be estreated.

24. The forms contained in the Schedule hereto shall be used, with such variations or modifications as circumstances may require, but any variance therefrom not being a matter of substance shall not affect their regularity. The said forms shall be supplied by the Registrar to those having the custody of accused persons and to any person demanding the same, and the instructions shall consist of copies of these Rules to be supplied with the forms.

25. The fees payable for copies of documents, exhibits, evidence, or other things shall be those allowed under the tariff in civil cases.

26. In matters not herein provided for the Rules of Court in civil cases shall, mutatis mutandis, apply.

27. These Rules may be cited as the "Criminal Appeal Rules, 1943," and shall come into force on the first day of March, 1943, on which date "The Criminal Appeal Rules, 1923," shall cease to be in force, without prejudice to any proceedings under the said Rules which may have been taken prior to the first day of March, 1943.
